

Corinne Gilchrist

Indianapolis, Indiana

- Attorney
- Chief Counsel, Legal and Internal Affairs, Indiana Department of Child Services

Travel: Statewide

Areas of Particular Interest:

- Employment
- Child Services
- Administrative Law
- Civil Rights
- Personal Injury
- Wrongful Discharge
- Sexual Harassment

Additional Information:

Corinne Welch Gilchrist currently serves as the Chief Counsel of Legal and Internal Affairs for the Indiana Department of Child Services. Prior to joining DCS, Corinne was a Deputy Attorney General with the Office of the Indiana Attorney General. She began working for the Indiana OAG as a clerk for the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit, and became a Deputy Attorney General in the Civil Rights & Employment Litigation Section where she defended a variety of claims against the State of Indiana and its employees. The Civil Rights & Employment Litigation Section was merged into the Civil Litigation section of the OAG, where Corinne handled administrative and regulatory matters in addition to civil rights and employment cases. Corinne earned a B.A. in Political Science from the University of Michigan, and her law degree at Indiana University Maurer School of Law. Corinne was awarded a Certificate of Excellence in Public Service by Indiana Attorney General Gregory F. Zoeller in 2009.